STATE EOC ACTIVATES IN RESPONSE TO THE HAITI EARTHQUAKE

TALLAHASSEE – The State Emergency Operations Center in Tallahassee activated at 9:00 a.m. today to a Level 2 or Partial Activation in response to the 7.0 earthquake that occurred in Haiti Tuesday afternoon.

State emergency management officials are working with state, federal and international disaster officials to assist with response and recovery efforts for the island nation as needed. Operations, logistics, plans and human services teams are prepared to assist with any mission requests.

Governor Charlie Crist has been briefed by Interim Director David Halstead and state officials are currently cataloging resources that can be made available to the island nation.
